Join our ISCD Family, Boaz Kramer, Executive Director, Jacob Ben-Arie, Chair & children from the Center with important updates from Israel.

Enjoy a special conversation with 2020 NBA draft pick from Israel, Deni Avdija & professional wheelchair basketball player Asael Shabo.

Deni Avdija

Deni is an Israeli born professional basketball player who recently played for Maccabi Tel Aviv of the Israeli Basketball Premier League and the EuroLeague. He is poised to be drafted as high as #2 in the upcoming NBA draft in November.

Asael Shabo

Asael grew up at the Center after losing his leg in a terrorist attack. He recently completed two years playing professional wheelchair basketball in Germany. Today, he works at the Center and is a true hero and role model for all young athletes there.
